NEGRO BURNED AT STAKE 125 MILES FROM NEW YORK

Mob of Thousands in Wilmington Stormed Jail Under Fire of Guards, Dragged Out Colored Youth, Who Confessed Brutal Murder of Miss Whitney Colt Picks Up 129 Bishop, and Put Him to Death.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WILMINGTON, Del., June 23 .- Nothing but the charred and mutilated body remains of George White, the negro who confessed last night that he was the murderer of Miss Helen Bishop, daughter of the Rev. Dr. E. A. Bishop. The young woman died as a result of a brutal attack last Monday a week while she was on the way to her home at Price's Corner, four miles from this city.

Within 125 miles of New York and barely a stone's throw from Mason and Dixon's line a mob of 4,000 whites took the negro from jail late last night after four of the attacking party had been wounded in a fight with the jailers, and after burning him at the stake riddled his body with hundreds of bullets.

Public sentiment approves the deed, and it is not believed that there will be any arrests.

Much of the responsibility for the lynching is laid upon the Rev. Robert A. Elwood, of the Olivet Presbyterian Church, in this city, who on Sunday preached a sermon from the text "Should the murderer of Miss Bishop be lynched?"

THRONG VISITS SCENE OF LYNCHING.

To-day thousands of persons went to the scene of the lynching, many of them intent upon securing ghastly relics. In this, however, they met with little success, as the burning had been so effectual as to destroy almost cevry vestige of the victim's body. The only remains were pieces of his

Judge Grubb, of the County Court, to-day made a public statement in which he deplores the lynching of White and its consequent reflection upon the good name of Delaware. Judge Grubb also explained the action of the Court in refusing to call a special session of the Grand Jury for the indictment of Miss Bishop's murderer. He says it would have been attended by such public clamor and prejudice that a fair trial would have been impossible, and the Court would have been compelled to grant the motion of the prisoner's counsel for a change of venue. Once the prisoner was moved to the insecure jail of Kent or Sussex County he might have escaped.

Chief of Police Black said this afternoon:

"Whereas. The crime has been violently and fiendishly expiated by lynching the self-confessed perpetrator: and.

The Rev. Mr. Elwood dictated the following statement: "I am very sorry it happened as it did. I believe the man should have running with King Pepper until they had a legal trial, but I also believe that he should have had a speedy trial. reached the turn. The negro's confession rendered the already incensed crowd even more desperate, and some wanted to tear him limb from limb before they reached the scene of his execution. The negro begged piteously not to be burned, where the leaders followed by the leaders followed by

It was announced before the funeral services were held at the house that the burial would probably be postponed because the deed to the Watrous plot in Woodlawn could not be found. This gave rise to the rumor that there would be an autopsy, but Harry Watrous made prompt denial.

It appears that the deed was really mislaid, but Harry Watrous made a required affidavit at the office of the Woodlawn Cemetery Company, in Twentythird street, and permission for the interment was given.
